

Academic Assessments

In December of 2008, Summit began using assessment tests that determine the literary and mathematical proficiencies in order to help tutors focus more in appropriate subject areas and to measure program effectiveness. Students take this test in reading and math three times per year.

2009 Academic Assessment Results \(PDF\)